Traffic Reporter & Multi Media Journalist

Posted - 6/11/2010 at 5:36PM

If you have a larger than life personality and strong journalistic skills, we have the perfect job for you. We are searching for a live Traffic Reporter and a Multi-Media Journalist (MMJ) to join our early morning team.

This person will be live throughout our morning show presenting traffic as well as getting involved in other segments. After the newscast, this MMJ will shoot video, write and edit stories for our on-air and on-line product. Successful candidates will have an outgoing personality, think on the fly and be able to deliver compelling TV and digital media packages. You must be able to manage your time to produce content for multiple platforms including social networks on a variety of deadlines. Strong, live on-camera presentation skills are key.

Candidates should have at least 5 years experience as a reporter or anchor at a commercial television station. An Arizona driver's license will be required along with a clean driving record and the ability to lift and carry up to 50 pounds of equipment.

A Bachelor's degree in journalism, communications or a related field is preferred.

Hello,

We currently have job opening for the attached job descriptions:

Traffic Reporter & Multi Media Journalist News Producer

Thank you, Gabriella Payroll Clerk

KVOA COMMUNICATIONS INC.

Job Opening

Traffic Reporter & Multi Media Journalist

If you have a larger than life personality and strong journalistic skills, we have the perfect job for you. We are searching for a live traffic reporter and a Multi-Media Journalist (MMJ) to join our early morning team.

This person will be live throughout our morning show presenting traffic as well as getting involved in other segments. After the newscast, this MMJ will shoot video, write and edit stories for our on-air and on-line product. Successful candidates will have an outgoing personality, think on the fly and be able to deliver compelling TV and digital media packages. You must be able to manage your time to produce content for multiple platforms including social networks on a variety of deadlines. Strong, live on-camera presentation skills are key.

Candidates should have at least 5 years experience as a reporter or anchor at a commercial television station. An Arizona driver's license will be required along with a clean driving record and the ability to lift and carry up to 50 pounds of equipment.

A Bachelor's degree in journalism, communications or a related field is preferred.

ENPS knowledge is a plus. Email or send your resume to:

If you have a larger than life personality and strong journalistic skills, we have the perfect job for you. We are searching for a live traffic reporter and a Multi-Media Journalist (MMJ) to join our early morning team.

This person will be live throughout our morning show presenting traffic as well as getting involved in other segments. After the newscast, this MMJ will shoot video, write and edit stories for our on-air and on-line product. Successful candidates will have an outgoing personality, think on the fly and be able to deliver compelling TV and digital media packages. You must be able to manage your time to produce content for multiple platforms including social networks on a variety of deadlines. Strong, live on-camera presentation skills are key.

Candidates should have at least 5 years experience as a reporter or anchor at a commercial television station. An Arizona driver's license will be required along with a clean driving record and the ability to lift and carry up to 50 pounds of equipment.

A Bachelor's degree in journalism, communications or a related field is preferred.
